Disclosure statement
for the paper
“Checking and Sharing Alt-Facts”

Sergei Guriev

This paper has been supported by the Sciences Po’s Scientific Advisory Board.

In the last three years, I have received compensation (in excess of ten thousand US dollars) from several sources:

- as an academic (tenured Professor of Economics), from Sciences Po, Paris;
- as a full-time staff member (Chief Economist), from the European Bank of Reconstruction and Development.

I have also held unpaid positions of President of the Society of Institutional and Organizational Economics and Member of the Executive Committee of the International Economic Association. Both are non-profit organizations.

I believe that the entities above have not exerted any influence on my research.
