

Disclosure Statement

Date: January 18, 2023

Author: Nicole Maestas, Harvard University and NBER

Paper: "The Value of Working Conditions in the United States and Implications for the Structure of Wages"

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

This research was supported by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I list below all parties from which I have received $10K+ in the last three years.

- a. Greylock McKinnon Associates (litigation consulting)
- b. National Bureau of Economic Research (employment, honoraria)
- c. Alfred P. Sloan Foundation (research, training grants)
- d. Social Security Administration (research grants)
- e. National Institutes of Health/National Institute on Aging (research grants)
- f. National Institute on Disability Independent Living and Rehabilitation Research (research grant)
- g. John and Laura Arnold Foundation (research grant)

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A "relevant" organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

- a. Director, NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center (research center funded by SSA)

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

No spousal or family-related potential COIs.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

None.

6. IRB approvals were obtained from the IRBs at Harvard Medical School and RAND.