Title: Deconstructing Database Reconstruction: History of a Census Bureau Statistical Experiment

I served as an expert witness for the plaintiffs in two lawsuits relevant to the Census Bureau's use of database reconstruction and differential privacy:

State of Alabama v. US Department of Commerce et al. (Case no. 3:21-CV-211-RAH-ECM-KCN, U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Alabama) March 24-April 29 2021.

Fair Lines America Foundation Inc. v. US Department of Commerce et al. (Case number 1:21-cv-01361-ABJ, U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia), July 28-October 1 2021.

I was compensated for this work by the State of Alabama and by Fair Lines America Foundation, Inc. I have not received any other financial support from an interested party.
